THE London Echo does not seem to understand that the currency backed by the government is good, though the legislation to secure it has been the worst that could have been conceived. The report of the republican comptroller of the currency is sufficient to prove this. For instance, he says that under the act of 1878 the government bought $308,199-262 worth of silver and coined it into 378,166,793 alleged dollars. This was a debasement of the coin to the extent of $69,967,531. The silver for which the government thus paid $308,199,262 is at present, says the comptroller, worth $57,-705,326 less than it cost. The Sherman silver purchase law of 1890 has resulted in the purchase of gilver bullion of $116,-611.33 and for it the government has issued promises to pay that sum. The silver bought at that price is now worth, according to the comptroller, $14,134,646 less than it cost. Yet these promises must be paid in gold. Is it not time such a law should be repealed and can anybody but the Echo man blame the democrats for denouncing the republifraught with possibilities of danger.

Miss Rehan, the actress has been chosen for the model for the silver statue of "Justice," which is to be the great exhibit of Montana in the department of schooner, the Rantan, being driven will be $60,000. Four years ago Virginia gave Cleveland a bare 1,500 plurality. This year she gave him 50.722 over Benjamin Harrison. At one time when the dear old State was under Mahone domination, we almost gave her out, fearing that she was joined to a new idol, but the mother of States and Statesmen has seen the error of her way and in a glorious man ner done works meet for repentence. God bless her and save her forever after from running after strange gods.

A FEW weeks ago the democrats of Frankfort tore up the earth celebrating the National victory, while the republicans congregated in the back room of the deserving of a good deal. All he wants post-office and laid their plans to caphelp them in their deep-laid schemes and they counted not in vain. The municipal election was held Saturday and the republicans elected five out of nine councilmen. Wonder where Col. E. Polk Johnson "was at?"

Tom Petrir will have done the State some service if his bill to fix the governor's salary at $6,500 and house rent free a year which has passed the House, the 8-hour bill. The vote stood 50 to should become the law. The salary is 20. now $5,000, but with the items furnished him at extravagant figures by local contracts the office costs $15,000 a year. Of course the new arrangement would the use of medicated bait or dynamiting not go into effect till the beginning of the next gubernatorial term.

ROBERT OLSEN was hanged at Dorchester, N. B., for the murder of a policeman. He left a confession with his lawyer which will reveal his history and real name. After his hempen cravat had been tied in the latest and most approved style, Mr. Olsen remarked to the gentleman who had done the job, "Let her go," and "he's up with the angels now."

Ir now takes 40 per cent. of all the revenues of the government to pay pensions and the roll is growing larger every day. A heavy check has got to be put to this outrageous business, or the country will be bankrupted. There are thousands of men living on the bounty of the government, who never got a smell of gunpowder.

LEXINGTON is undergoing a water famine, but as water is only used there for washing purposes, it doesn't matter.

Tuz London Echo asks what odds do we wish on the change of politics that we are each to undergo if the democratic administration does not prove a greater blessing than the republican management of affairs. We run no risk whatever in accepting the proposition as it stands, but if Editor Dyche should lose, as he will, of course, we shall require him to serve one year in the prohibition party, two with the people's and then if he will take a Turkish bath and thoroughly purify himself from head to foot, we will consider his application for membership in the grandest party that ever existed. Brer. Dyche's sins are too great and his pollution too thorough to permit his immediate acceptance into the fold. Hence these necessary precautions.

As is often the way, if there is not too much bitterness, a fight among democrats, like a fight among cats, means more democrats. Four years ago all was lovely and serene with the democrats in Texas and she gave Cleveland a retract. plurality of 146,461. This year the party split into factions and nominated two candidates for governor, besides being torn up in matters of a local nature. To the casual noticer of current events this tion. meant a material reduction in the vote on the National democratic ticket. But not so. Cleveland sees his 146,461 plurality and goes it 15,212 more. It is 161,-673 this time. The Lone Star State seems to make a specialty of growing
